

1. Many scholars believe the discovery will greatly _____ our understanding of ancient trade routes.
- confine
 - enhance
 - obliterate
 - impede
 - contradict
2. In many rural areas, access to clean water remains _____ despite ongoing efforts to improve infrastructure.
- scarce
 - abundant
 - redundant
 - negligible
 - widespread
3. If the weather conditions hadn't _____ so abruptly, the expedition might have been successful.
- deteriorated
 - stagnated
 - prospered
 - alleviated
 - flourished
34. They will have to _____ the negotiations if no agreement is reached by the end of the week.
- prolong
 - expedite
 - defer
 - abort
 - mitigate
5. After months of deliberation, the council finally voted to _____ the policy that had sparked widespread protests.
- enforce
 - rescind
 - impose
 - initiate
 - perpetuate
6. The team managed to complete the project _____, despite facing several unexpected challenges along the way.
- haphazardly
 - successfully
 - reluctantly
 - vaguely
 - explicitly
7. After years of intense research, the scientist's theory was finally _____ by the academic community.
- endorsed
 - discarded
 - prolonged
 - subverted
 - withdrawn
8. During the negotiations, both parties made significant concessions, but none could fully _____ their initial demands.
- relinquish
 - consolidate
 - distort
 - renounce
 - enforce
39. Following years of research, archaeologists uncovered a previously unknown settlement, which they believe might _____ the history of the region.
- invalidate
 - enrich
 - depreciate
 - undermine
 - obliterate
10. The new regulations were _____ enforced, leading to confusion and inconsistencies in different regions.
- ambiguously
 - rigorously
 - unevenly
 - vividly
 - immensely

11. The boss _____ addressed the concerns of the employees during the meeting, ensuring transparency throughout the process.

- a) vaguely
- b) firmly
- c) accidentally
- d) negligently
- e) abruptly

12. As the negotiations continued, it became clear that both parties were attempting to _____ their position by any means necessary.

- a) erode
- b) substantiate
- c) dismantle
- d) alleviate
- e) distort

13. The software update was released _____ to address the security vulnerabilities before any major breaches occurred.

- a) inevitably
- b) promptly
- c) vaguely
- d) reluctantly
- e) periodically

14. As the curator examined the ancient manuscript, she realized that its contents could _____ previously accepted theories about the dynasty's downfall.

- a) refute
- b) instigate
- c) obscure
- d) fabricate
- e) reiterate

15. The robotics engineer needed to _____ several prototypes before finding a model that was both efficient and cost-effective.

- a) preserve
- b) discard
- c) fortify
- d) circumvent
- e) replicate

16. By the time the authorities arrived, the situation had already _____ out of control.

- A) spiraled
- B) neutralized
- C) resolved
- D) retained
- E) diminished

17. When the meteorologist saw the satellite images, he knew the storm would _____ coastal regions within hours.

- a) bypass
- b) devastate
- c) foster
- d) obscure
- e) facilitate

18. Before finalizing the research paper, the economist had to _____ all the data to ensure accuracy in her conclusions.

- a) validate
- b) hinder
- c) obscure
- d) mitigate
- e) perplex

19. The sculptor's latest work seeks to _____ the delicate balance between chaos and order in modern society.

- a) dismantle
- b) distort
- c) encapsulate
- d) mitigate
- e) disrupt

20. Despite the complexity of the task, the instructions were _____ followed, resulting in a successful outcome.

- a) carelessly
- b) rigorously
- c) effortlessly
- d) deliberately
- e) recklessly